The Board should include information in the Company's annual report about the steps taken to implement the code of ethics and to monitor compliance with the code of ethics.

APPENDIX A: VISTA CODE OF ETHICS

The Vista Code of Ethics is the framework of standards by which the directors, employees, contractors for personal services and advisers of Vista Group International Limited and its related companies (Vista people) are expected to conduct their professional lives and has been approved by the Board. This Code is not intended to prescribe an exhaustive list of acceptable and non-acceptable behaviour, rather it is intended to facilitate decisions that are consistent with Vista values, business goals and legal and policy obligations, thereby enhancing performance outcomes. Vista people must familiarise themselves with Vista values, as they govern their behaviour while they are employed by Vista.

Directors, Senior Executives and other employees who are proven to have breached this Code of Ethics will face disciplinary action which, depending on the seriousness and severity of the breach, could include dismissal or legal action or both.

Vista directors and managers are expected to lead according to these standards of ethical and professional conduct and to ensure that they are communicated to the people who report to them. Vista people are expected to act honestly and in the best interests of Vista, its shareholders and stakeholders and as required by law.

If you have any questions or concerns about an ethical question, or become aware of a breach of a legal obligation or a Vista Policy, let the Chairperson of the Board know as soon as possible. If this is not appropriate, contact the Chairperson of the Audit and Risk Committee. (Please refer to Article 11, Reporting Concerns, for more information.)

1. Conflicts of Interest

A conflict of interest occurs when an individual's interests interfere, or appear to interfere, with Vista's interests. Vista expects Vista people to act in Vista's interests at all times.

Vista people will not without the prior consent of Vista:

- engage in any other business or commercial activities which would conflict with their ability to perform their duties to Vista;
- support a political party or organisation other than in a personal capacity; and
- engage in any other activity which could conflict with Vista's interests.

2. Gifts

"Gifts" and "personal benefits" can include accommodation, goods, services, discounts, special terms on loans and so on.

Vista people will not accept gifts or personal benefits of any value from external parties if it could be perceived that such acceptance might compromise or influence any decision by Vista.

3. Corporate Opportunities

Vista expects its people to advance its legitimate interests when the opportunity to do so arises.

Vista people will not:

- trade in shares, or any other kind of property, based on information that comes from their roles for Vista if that information is not in the public domain.

4. Confidentiality

Vista and Vista stakeholders entrust us daily with their confidential communications and information. Confidential information includes all information not in the public domain that has come to a Vista employee's knowledge by virtue of working for Vista.

Vista people will maintain and protect the confidentiality of information entrusted to Vista about work colleagues, stakeholders and Vista's business and financial affairs, except where disclosure is allowed by Vista or is required by law.

5. Behaviours

The actions and statements of Vista people, whether to customers, suppliers, competitors, or employees, can impact on the way people see Vista and whether they choose to do business with us.

Vista people will:

- undertake their duties in accordance with Vista values;
- conduct themselves in a way that demonstrates that their honesty is beyond question and will not behave in a manner that has the potential to bring Vista's image into disrepute;
- deal honestly and with personal integrity in all actions, including with Vista's other people, professional advisors and stakeholders;

management certain rights to make operational and financial decisions within defined limits. A director should not simultaneously hold the positions of Chief Executive and Chairperson of the Board.

Vista people will:

- only act within the delegated authority framework and any authority that may be specifically given to them as a delegated authority holder; and

Vista management shall provide the Board with information of sufficient content, quality and timeliness as the Board considers necessary to enable the Board to effectively discharge its duties.

11. Reporting Concerns

If you become aware of a breach of the Vista Code of Ethics or any breach of a legal obligation or Vista policy, you are responsible for reporting it to your manager or the Board, as appropriate. If this is not appropriate in the circumstances, you should report the breach to the:

- Chairperson of the Board; or
- Chairperson of the Audit and Risk Committee.

Vista will stand behind any employee who, acting in good faith, reports a breach, serious problem or wrongdoing. The identity of the person making the report will be kept confidential where possible – there may be situations however where the proper investigation of the matter inadvertently identifies the reporter or requires his or her identification.

Vista requires all Directors, Senior Executives and other employees who receive a report of an actual or suspected violation of this Code of Ethics to take all reasonable steps within their control to ensure that:

- the behaviour alleged in the report is thoroughly investigated;
- the rules of natural justice are observed in that investigation; and
- appropriate disciplinary action is taken if the allegation is substantiated.

Any person who knowingly makes a false report of a legal or policy breach may be subject to disciplinary action.

If you suspect that a breach of the delegated authority rules or limits has occurred you should advise your manager and the delegated authority holder whose responsibility it should have been to approve the transaction, as soon as possible.
